Report on the celebration of NSS day

The Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports oversees the National Service Scheme, which is a public service programme. Every year on September 24, India celebrates National Service Scheme Day (NSS Day). During Mahatma Gandhi's Centenary Year (1969), on September 24, the National Service Scheme (NSS) was inaugurated, including 40,000 student volunteers from 37 institutions.

The NSS's insignia is inspired by the world-famous Konark Sun Temple's massive Rath Wheel. The wheel represents life's journey across time and space. The wheel's eight bars reflect the 24 hours of the day. The red colour suggests that the volunteer is full of youthful blood that is vibrant, active, enthusiastic, and upbeat. The navy blue colour represents the universe, of which the NSS is a little part.

The NSS motto "Not Me but You" represents the spirit of democratic living and emphasizes the need for selfless service. NSS teaches students to appreciate other people's points of view and to be considerate to other beings. The ideology of the NSS is perfectly exemplified in this slogan, which emphasizes on the concept that everyone's welfare is highly reliant on the welfare of society.
