Report on the celebrations of National Blood Donation Day

National Voluntary Blood Donation Day has been celebrated in India on 1st of October every year to share the need and importance of the blood in the life of an individual. It was first started celebrating on 1st of October in the year 1975 through the Indian Society of Blood Transfusion and Immunohaematology. Indian Society of Blood Transfusion and Immunohaematology was first established on 22nd October, 1971 under the leadership of Mrs. K. Swaroop Krishen and Dr. J.G. Jolly.

Objectives:

- To make aware the people all over the country about the importance of the voluntary blood donation.
- To successfully achieve the target of Voluntary Blood Donation to fulfill the urgent need of the needy patients.
- To store the blood in stock in blood banks for any urgent and serious requirement.
- To promote and emphasize the self-esteem of blood donors through a lot of thanks.
- To motivate and encourage people who are not interested in donating blood even after being a healthy person.
- To stimulate people to donate blood voluntarily who are interested in donating blood only to their relatives or friends.

The college organizes the program as mentioned below.

1. Tribute to Swami Vivekanand by offering garland to his photograph through the Principal Dr. Sudhir Jagtap
2. Devotional song by the college cultural team.
3. Speech of the Guest.
4. Presidential remark.
5. Vote of thanks

Thus, an environment of enthusiasm was experienced by every college student and was a memorable event for all the departments.
