Gender Equality through teaching, research, extension activities

The college promotes gender equality through teaching, research, extension activities and tries to create more gender equity.

Gender Equality through teaching and Research:

The college admits male and female students for graduate, postgraduate and Research. It also recruits both male and female candidates as teaching nonteaching staff so as to achieve gender equality.

The prescribed curriculum emphasizes Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment, and Sustainability issues where women empowerment and gender equity are highlighted. The cells like grievances redressal, women empowerment, anti-sexual harassment, and anti-ragging have been constituted by the college and are functional.

Gender Equality through extension activities:

The NSS unit of the college has been continuously contributing since its inception with the primary aim of providing opportunities for the students to involve themselves in social activities and ultimately develop their personality. The successful functioning of the NSS unit at the college level gives impetus for proper implementation, extension and outreach activities. The college has introduced the NSS unit for the personality development of the NSS volunteers through community services.
