Marathwada Liberation Day, also known as Marathwada Mukti Sangram Din is celebrated in Maharashtra on 17 September annually. It marks the anniversary of Marathwada's integration with India when the Indian military, liberated State of Hyderabad, and defeated the Nizam on 17 September 1948, 13 months after Indian independence.

HISTORY AND SIGNIFICANCE

The princely states under British rule, then reigned by different kings, had the option to join either Pakistan or the Union of India after India gained independence on 15 August 1947. Hyderabad's Nizam, Mir Osman Ali Khan, wished to continue his rule as either a self-governing monarchy or a protectorate of the British Empire and did not intend to join either India or Pakistan. The British government, on the other hand, refused to grant Hyderabad any kind of sovereignty.

The college organizes the program as mentioned below.

1. Tribute to freedom fighters by offering garland to their photographs.
2. Speech by Dr. S.B. Jagtap, Principal, SVM, Udgir.
3. Cultural and other competitions and prize distribution program.

Thus, an environment of enthusiasm was experienced by every college student and was a memorable event for all the departments.
